

I support satellite radio and would be against legislation limiting their ability to broadcast. This is an important and vital service in a free market environment.